By registering, paying, checking in, appearing at, or participating in any event operated, promoted, managed, or hosted by MAGICS LEGACY, LLC, FCSBALL.COM, or AMERICAN FOOTBALL NATIONAL TOURNAMENT, the Team agrees to be bound by the terms, rules, policies, procedures, and conditions set forth below.

1. Authority of Head Coach / Team Representative

The undersigned Head Coach or authorized Team Representative represents and warrants that he or she has full authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of the Team, Youth Football Organization, coaches, players, parents, spectators, volunteers, and all individuals attending or participating under the Team's name.

The Head Coach shall be the primary person responsible for all communications with Tournament officials. Parents and spectators must communicate through the Head Coach or designated Team Mom/Manager unless otherwise approved by Tournament Administration.

The Head Coach is ultimately responsible for the conduct, behavior, documentation, eligibility, finances, and compliance of all coaches, players, parents, spectators, and representatives associated with the Team.

2. Acceptance of Tournament Rules

The Team acknowledges that it has received, read, understands, and agrees to comply with all Tournament rules, procedures, schedules, eligibility requirements, check-in requirements, sideline rules, sportsmanship standards, and any additional written or verbal instructions provided by Tournament administration.

Failure to comply with Tournament rules may result in player ineligibility, game forfeiture, team disqualification, removal from the event, loss of fees paid, or other action deemed appropriate by Tournament administration.

- ☐ Player eligibility verification;
- ☐ Age and grade verification;
- ☐ Team check-in requirements;
- ☐ Wristband and player inspection procedures;
- ☐ Game-time arrival requirements;
- ☐ Sideline conduct and sportsmanship expectations;
- ☐ Equipment requirements;
- ☐ Game rules and special rule exceptions;

3. Team Check-In and Documentation

Each Team must check in at the designated time and location established by Tournament administration. The Team must provide complete and accurate documentation, including roster, player identification, proof of age, grade verification, team book, required waivers, and any additional documents requested by Tournament administration.

Players should be organized in numerical order at check-in. Failure to provide complete and accurate documentation may result in the affected player being declared ineligible or the Team being disqualified from the Tournament. No roster additions will be permitted after final check-in unless expressly approved in writing by Tournament Administration.

4. Pre-Game Inspection Requirements

Before every game, one authorized Coach and the Team's player book must report to Event Headquarters for player and wristband inspection. The Team must arrive at Event Headquarters no later than sixty to ninety minutes before game time, unless otherwise instructed by Tournament administration.

Failure to arrive on time may prevent Tournament Staff from verifying player eligibility, wristbands, team documents, or other requirements. Such failure may result in delay, forfeiture, disqualification, or other disciplinary action.

5. Wristbands and Player Identification

Players may be issued numbered wristbands or other identification devices at team check-in. Wristbands may not be removed, altered, transferred, tampered with, damaged, or replaced without approval from Tournament Administration.

Any player with a missing, altered, damaged, or suspicious wristband may be subject to further verification and may be declared ineligible until eligibility is confirmed.

6. Registration Fees, Payments, and No Refunds

All registration fees, team fees, player fees, coach fees, pass fees, deposits, and other payments are due in accordance with the deadlines established by Tournament Administration.

Once a Team, player, coach, or participant is registered, all fees are considered earned by the Tournament and are non-refundable, unless otherwise stated in writing by Tournament administration. Tournament expenses may be incurred immediately upon registration, including awards, shirts, medals, rings, trophies, staffing, field costs, administration, insurance, security, equipment, websites, and event operations.

Any money owed by a Team must be paid in an approved method designated by Tournament administration. Personal checks may be refused.

7. Hotel and Travel Responsibility

The Team is solely responsible for all hotel, lodging, transportation, food, travel, and related expenses. If any person associated with the Team reserves a hotel room and fails to attend or cancel in accordance with hotel policy, the Team or individual making the reservation may remain responsible for any hotel charges, cancellation fees, no-show fees, or related costs.

MAGICS LEGACY, LLC, FCSBALL.COM, and AMERICAN FOOTBALL NATIONAL TOURNAMENT are not responsible for hotel policies, hotel cancellation charges, transportation delays, travel issues, or lodging disputes.

8. Equipment Requirements

Each Team is responsible for ensuring that every player has proper and safe football equipment required to participate. All players must have a mouthpiece and all required protective equipment.

Failure to have proper equipment may result in the player being declared ineligible to participate until the issue is corrected. The Tournament reserves the right to prohibit any player from participating if Tournament officials determine that the player does not have proper equipment or presents a safety concern.

9. Sportsmanship and Conduct

All coaches, players, parents, spectators, volunteers, and representatives of the Team are required to conduct themselves with good sportsmanship at all times.

Arguing with officials, threatening behavior, profanity, fighting, harassment, abuse, unsportsmanlike conduct, or failure to follow Tournament instructions may result in disciplinary action. Only the designated Head Coach may communicate with the White Hat official regarding game-related questions or concerns. Coaches, players, parents, and spectators may not argue calls with referees or officials.

10. Ejections, Removal, and Disciplinary Action

Any player, coach, parent, spectator, or Team representative ejected from a game or event may be removed from the facility and may be prohibited from further participation in the Tournament. Fighting by any individual may result in immediate ejection and removal from the remainder of the Tournament.

If an ejected individual refuses to leave the field, facility, or event area when instructed, Tournament administration may contact security or local law enforcement to remove the individual. The Tournament reserves the right to suspend, disqualify, remove, or ban any individual or Team whose conduct is unsafe, disruptive, threatening, dishonest, unsportsmanlike, or harmful to the event.

11. Sideline Control and Responsibility

The Head Coach is responsible for controlling the sideline and ensuring that only authorized individuals are present in the team area. All sideline participants may be required to display approved passes, credentials, wristbands, or other identification.

Unauthorized individuals may be removed from the sideline or team area. The Team is responsible for the conduct of all coaches, players, parents, spectators, and representatives attending the event under the Team's name.

12. Medical and Injury Procedures

Participation in football involves inherent risks, including serious injury, permanent disability, paralysis, or death. The Team agrees that each player's parent or legal guardian is responsible for determining whether the player is physically able to participate.

In the event of a possible serious injury, no person should move the injured player or remove the player's helmet unless directed by qualified medical personnel. The Team must immediately notify the nearest Tournament administrator, security person, official, or medical personnel if a serious injury occurs.

The Tournament may or may not provide athletic trainers, medical staff, or emergency medical personnel at a particular field or event location. The Team remains responsible for its own player safety, preparation, and emergency contacts.

13. Assumption of Risk

The Team, Coach, Organization, players, parents, guardians, and spectators knowingly and voluntarily assume all risks associated with participation in or attendance at the Tournament. By participating in the Tournament, the Team grants MAGICS LEGACY, LLC, FCSBALL.COM, and AMERICAN FOOTBALL NATIONAL TOURNAMENT the right to photograph, record, livestream, film, post, publish, reproduce, and use the names, images, likenesses, voices, team names, logos, uniforms, and game footage of players, coaches, parents, spectators, and representatives for promotional, marketing, social media, website, advertising, documentary, and commercial purposes.

The Team is responsible for obtaining any necessary parent or guardian permissions for minor participants.

21. Eligibility and False Information

The Team certifies that all player information submitted to the Tournament is true, accurate, and complete. 22. No Guarantee of Opponents, Game Times, or Outcomes

I understand and acknowledge that tackle football, flag football, athletic competition, youth sports, tournament play, travel, warm-ups, conditioning, physical contact, and attendance at sporting events involve inherent and significant risks. While rules, equipment, officials, coaches, event staff, and safety procedures may reduce risk, they cannot eliminate all risk.

If I observe any unusual, unsafe, or significant hazard, I will immediately remove myself and/or my child from participation and notify the nearest event official, administrator, security person, coach, or medical personnel.

4. Compliance With Rules and Event Policies

I agree that I and/or my minor child will follow all rules, policies, procedures, instructions, schedules, eligibility requirements, sideline rules, safety rules, check-in requirements, wristband rules, sportsmanship rules, and conduct expectations issued by the Event Organizer.

Failure to follow event rules may result in removal from the event, player ineligibility, forfeiture, team disqualification, loss of fees paid, suspension from future events, or other disciplinary action. No roster additions may be allowed after final check-in unless expressly approved by the Event Organizer in writing.

6. Equipment Responsibility

I understand that each player is responsible for having proper football equipment required for participation. This may include helmet, shoulder pads, mouthpiece, cleats, football pants, pads, and any other equipment required by the team, league, event, or governing rules.

Any participant showing signs or symptoms of a suspected concussion, head injury, serious injury, heat illness, or other potentially serious medical condition must be immediately removed from participation and evaluated by qualified medical personnel.

A participant with a suspected concussion or head injury must not return to participation on the same day. Return is permitted only after written clearance from a licensed healthcare provider qualified to evaluate and manage the condition, completion of any prescribed return-to-play protocol, and compliance with applicable law. Event administration, coaches, and parents may not substitute their approval for medical clearance. Participants removed for other serious injuries or illnesses must also receive appropriate medical clearance before returning.

No coach, parent, player, spectator, or event representative may pressure an injured or ill participant to continue playing or return before medically cleared.

The Head Coach is responsible for the conduct of the team's coaches, players, parents, spectators, and representatives.

14. Media, Photo, Video, and Promotional Release

I grant the Event Organizer permission to photograph, record, livestream, film, publish, post, display, reproduce, and use the name, image, likeness, voice, team name, uniform, logo, photographs, videos, game footage, interviews, and other media of me and/or my minor child for websites, social media, advertising, flyers, posters, promotions, highlight videos, event recaps, sponsorship materials, and commercial or non-commercial marketing.
